“ROB ORLEMANS & HALF PAST MIDNIGHT”

The Dutch blues-rock formation Rob Orlemans & Half Past Midnight belongs to the top of the blues and rock scene.

The power blues trio can be found on the various national and international stages, including the USA, where the band recorded two albums. The band get's positive reviews time after time and the fans love the energy they receive from the band

Rob Orlemans is the “face” of the band. With his own familiar style he is considered to be one of the best blues-rock guitar players at this day.

His raw, lived through voice and his elevating guitar skills make every show a real happening.

The line up of the band consists of Piet Tromp on Bass, Ernst van Ee on Drums (Highway Chile, Vengeance, Lana Lane) and Rob Orlemans on guitar and vocals.

With this heavy rhythm section Orlemans creates a band which kicks off full of energy from the first minute on and guarantees a dynamic performance.

Their latest released album “Highway of Love” contains catchy, well thought through, balanced songs with a lot of rock and blues influences and received fantastic reviews and has been released outside Europe, in USA and Japan, as well.

At this moment Rob Orlemans, on occasion, collaborates with the US artist Michael Katon (Knock Out Boogie Tour) and also played with him on the main stage of Ribs and Blues Festival (NL) in 2015. They also released a new album together “Live K.O.” the same year.
